POLICY ON STUDENTS' ATTENDANCE

1. Policy Statement

N. B. Thakur Law College & Research Centre, Nashik, is committed to maintaining regular attendance, academic discipline and active participation of students in the teaching-learning process. The College shall implement the attendance requirements prescribed by Savitribai Phule Pune University (SPPU), Pune, and the Bar Council of India (BCI), in accordance with their applicable rules, ordinances, regulations and directions.

2. Minimum Attendance Requirements

As prescribed under Part IV, Clause 1 of the SPPU Law Curriculum, students enrolled in the LL.B. (Three-Year) and B.A. LL.B. (Five-Year) programmes shall be required to maintain a minimum of 75% attendance in the classes conducted during each semester, subject to the exceptions provided under applicable University rules.

Further, in accordance with Rule 12 of the Bar Council of India Rules of Legal Education, 2008, every student shall maintain a minimum of 70% attendance in each subject, including lectures, tutorials, moot court exercises and practical training conducted in the concerned subject, taken together.

The College shall implement these requirements in accordance with SPPU Ordinance No. 68, as amended, and other applicable University provisions.

3. Monitoring and Maintenance of Attendance

The College shall maintain attendance records of students for lectures, tutorials, practical training, moot courts and other prescribed academic activities. Attendance shall be recorded regularly by the respective teachers and monitored periodically by the College administration.

Students having inadequate attendance shall be informed and advised to improve their attendance.

4. Shortage of Attendance and Exceptional Cases

Cases involving shortage of attendance shall be considered strictly in accordance with the applicable provisions of SPPU ordinances and Rule 12 of the BCI Rules of Legal Education, 2008.

Under the exceptional provision of BCI Rule 12, a student having at least 65% attendance in an individual subject and 70% aggregate attendance in all subjects taken together may be considered by the competent authority for permission to appear for the examination, subject to exceptional circumstances, reasons recorded in writing, applicable University requirements and prescribed reporting to the BCI.

No relaxation or condonation shall be granted automatically or contrary to the applicable rules and binding directions.

5. Eligibility for University Examinations

Students shall be eligible to appear for end-semester University examinations only upon fulfilment of the prescribed attendance requirements and other academic conditions, subject to any relaxation or exception lawfully permissible under the applicable SPPU and BCI provisions.

6. Responsibility for Implementation

The Principal, teaching faculty and administrative staff shall be responsible for implementing this policy, maintaining attendance records and ensuring compliance with the applicable regulatory requirements.

7. Review and Amendment

This policy shall be reviewed periodically and shall remain subject to amendments, notifications, clarifications and directions issued by SPPU, BCI and other competent authorities, as well as applicable judicial orders.
